

Mainly Local

Lieut. Herbert F. Weser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Weser, who has been in France for the past eight months.

Braduer D. Wheeler, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wheeler, a recent graduate of the Princeton ground school for aviators.

Washington Grove Band, a volunteer organization which has done yeoman service in liberty loan and war savings stamp campaigns in nearby Maryland towns. In the background are convalescent soldiers entertained by the residents of Washington Grove and vicinity.

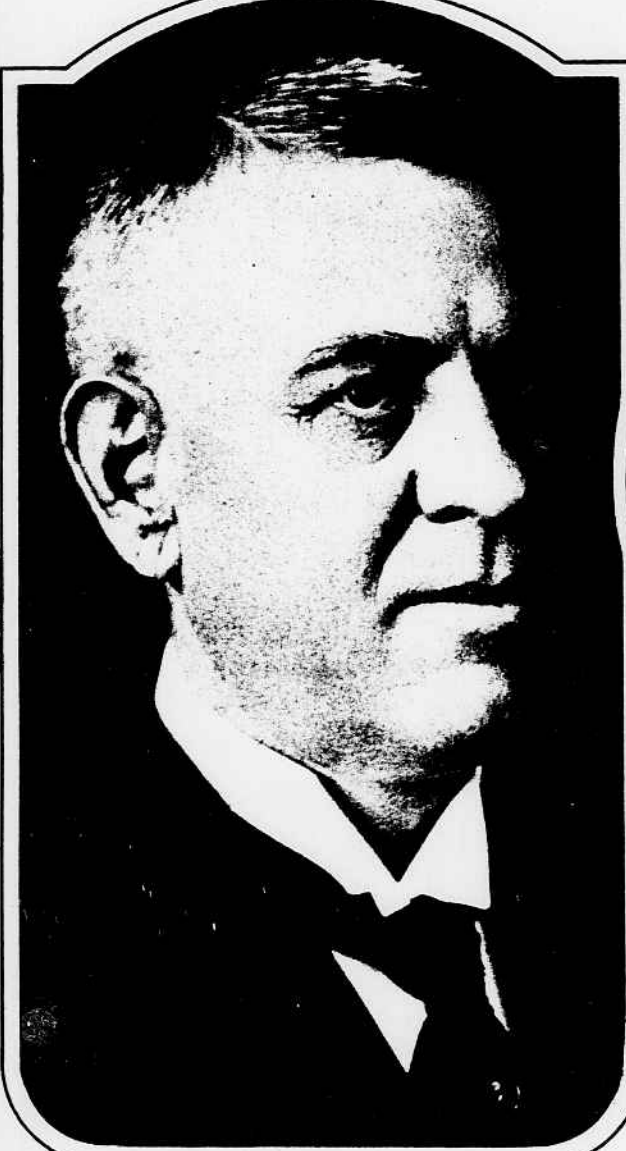

Lieut. James Parker Nolan, son of Mrs. W. D. Nolan, in France.

Capt. Raymond LeRoy Shoemaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Shoemaker of Chevy Chase, Md., stationed at Kansas City, Mo.

Mrs. J. Borden Harriman, who leads the ten Washington girls selected as ambulance drivers with the American Army in France.
(Copyright by Harris & Ewing.)

N. B. Dial of Laurens, S. C., who defeated Cole Blease in the senatorial primary of South Carolina.

Miss Emily Moran, a full-blooded Indian of royal ancestry, who will aid Uncle Sam as a wireless operator. She was born on the Round Valley reservation, California, twenty years ago.
(Copyright by Harris & Ewing.)

John R. Mott, director general of the $175,000 drive for the Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., National Catholic War Council, Jewish Welfare Board, American Library Association, War Camp Community Service and the Salvation Army. The drive will take place during the week of November 11-18.
(Copyright by Underwood & Underwood.)

W. S. S. Club of the bureau of aircraft production, organized and directed by Leo I. McCarthy, which has succeeded in selling among 2,400 persons $22,000 worth of stamps in eight weeks. This is the largest amount of money subscribed by any branch of the War Department within a similar length of time.

Two young women doing an important war work—Miss Genevieve Chapin of Falls Church, Va., assistant to secretary of censorship board (standing), and Miss Sue Courts of Washington, in charge of all correspondence of the board, who has developed a filing system of great accuracy.
(Copyright by Harris & Ewing.)